Life Trends™ Transits Report for Johnny Depp For 12 Months Starting 1/1/2007

Introduction

The following pages describe the major transits that you will be experiencing over the coming period. These pages can give you insight into the challenges that you will encounter and the underlying lessons that they offer you. There are literally hundreds of transits occurring for you each year, so this report focuses on those which occur more infrequently and therefore present the greatest challenges.

The "Exact" transit dates and immediately prior to those dates are the times when the energies described will be felt most strongly and when actual events related to the transit are most likely to occur. Many transits will have three "Exact" dates listed. This is because the transiting planet goes retrograde (R) and then direct (D) again, causing three "hits." When this is the case, the issues associated with the transit will surface on the first hit, there will be some progress toward resolving these issues on the second hit, and the third hit will bring final resolution.

Read your transit report over once now to get a general overview of the coming period. Then, as the issues described in this report begin to appear in your life, you can refer back to this report for suggestions on how to best handle the changes that you are experiencing. Even the worst transit can be a valuable experience if you are fortunate enough to "get" the lesson that it offers.

The readings stress that you are the ultimate decider of your fate. Astrology can give you a "weather report" on the energies influencing you, but it is up to you to decide how you will react. Some people can benefit greatly under normally difficult transits because they eagerly meet the challenge head on. Others will not benefit from the most positive transits because they did not pursue opportunities presented to them. Request a personal reading if you would like to examine your upcoming changes more thoroughly.

Now on to your personal transits report.

At this time you are inspired to achieve great things and feel more confident than usual in your ability to do so. You are highly ambitious now and will set your sights higher than usual in pursuing your goals in life. If you keep your nose completely clean and exercise only the best of intentions toward others, you can indeed achieve much power, success and social status now. However, you may encounter opposition or resistance from others in your efforts, particularly if you have used shady or underhanded methods to achieve your success. If this has been the case, people will begin lining up to throw mud at you and expose all your darkest secrets.

Even if you do nothing wrong, others will challenge you now. You may experience problems with authority figures or be involved with conflicts and power struggles on the job, particularly if you work with education, religion or foreign cultures. You may be forced to take a stand for what you believe in and will have to re-examine your own values in the process. Avoid becoming dogmatic or having a "holier than thou" attitude. You may feel the need to lead others, but first be sure you know where you're going.

Another way to express the energies of this transit is to repair or restore an old building, piece of artwork, etc. It is also a good time to become involved in groups working toward beneficial change in society. Be sure that you keep your ego out of any group projects now; otherwise you will also encounter opposition there.

This transit sometimes indicates legal conflicts or lawsuits. You may also have difficulties regarding taxes, alimony, inheritance, insurance, or corporate holdings. No matter what the situation, be sure you are completely honest and straightforward. If you have anything to hide, you won't be able to now.

Jupiter trine Ascendant: 1/22/2007 3:39 PM, Exact

You will grow a great deal through your contacts with others at this time. You have a keener sense of what it takes to maintain a healthy give-and-take balance in relationships. You feel quite generous and are also very optimistic and self-confident. Your positive way of thinking makes you a pleasant person to be around. You are very supportive of your friends, and you tend to bring out the best in others. And, of course, since what goes around comes around, you will be amply rewarded for your generosity during this transit.

New teachers may enter your life during this time, or you may find yourself in the role of teacher with someone else. Whatever the case, new friends that you meet now will be of great help to you in the future. This would be an excellent time to travel, or to move to a better home. You need more elbow room now, since you feel the need for greater freedom.

This transit can bring a new love into your life. Or, you may acquire more friends that will be helpful to you. Any new relationship formed at this time will be quite beneficial to your personal growth, whether or not the relationship itself stands the test of time. You may return to school under this transit or take a course that you find answers some of the many questions that are surfacing for you now.

You have an increased curiosity about spiritual truths and are anxious to learn as much as you can. You will be exposed to different cultures and belief systems, probably through your friends and loved ones. The new truths that you explore will be very deep and spiritual, as you are not inclined to be superficial now. You see depth in all the wondrous secrets of Nature and can understand your role in the larger Universal Plan.

Saturn oppose Saturn: 1/22/2007 3:50 PM, Exact

This transit occurs only once in each 28- to 30-year cycle of Saturn and represents a culmination of efforts which you began 14 years ago at the last return of Saturn to its natal position. At that time you began a new cycle of maturity, and you initiated new projects and began new relationships which reflected your newfound life goals.

These new goals received their first challenge about seven years ago when Saturn squared itself. At that time you cleared away many obstacles and outdated structures in your life to allow room for the new you to emerge. If you did a good job at clearing away useless situations at that time, you will have an easier time with the current opposition. If you perhaps resisted necessary change at that time and refused to part with old methods and goals, you will finish the clearing away process at this time.

If you have prepared well in the recent past, this could be a time of great success and achievement. You will willingly take on new responsibilities now and are happy to work hard to achieve your goals. On the other hand, you may start to get the message that you are working in the wrong direction and must change course now. Carefully watch which areas of your life are and are not working out. Perhaps you will receive opposition from Coworkers or superiors. Be willing to leave behind those which are not working and to further structure those which are.

Any old relationships which were not fully cleared up will become a problem during this time. It is time to straighten them out once and for all, because the problems which exist will not simply go away if ignored. You could even experience legal conflicts during this transit.

You are building up a solid foundation upon which to build your life over the next fourteen years. At this mid-point in Saturn's cycle, it is time to reflect on what the last fourteen years have produced and where the next fourteen will lead. If you can face these questions and answer them honestly, you will reap the maximum benefit from this transit.

Jupiter trine Jupiter: 1/31/2007 2:40 PM, Exact

This is a time of increased optimism and self-confidence and is an excellent time to review your goals and make long-range plans for the future. It is a good time to reorganize your life in some way--your office, kitchen, etc. You feel like expanding your knowledge about the world and may even enroll in a class now or travel to distant places. Now is also a good time to join a consciousness-raising group or otherwise indulge in self-discovery.

You generally feel good now, and if you have been sick recently this transit will help a great deal to rebuild your strength. This is also an excellent time to improve your family life and to grow in the process. Your finances are likely to improve, and business investments are favored. Legal matters will be resolved with little effort (often to everyone's mutual benefit).

This is a good time to reflect on your goals and to explore ways to eliminate stress and tension from your life. You may become involved in a group dedicated to bettering the world, and this would be a good outlet for your energy now. Actions undertaken with a group at this time are generally successful.

This transit leaves you with a feeling of "laziness," and so you may find that you do nothing but feel good during its duration. If you can, however, take this opportunity to travel or get involved in mind-expanding experiences, study new subjects, etc. The ability to benefit greatly from such activities exists now; you have to add the motivation.

Uranus trine Neptune: 2/10/2007 11:41 PM, Exact

This transit occurs only twice in each 84-year cycle of Uranus. During this time you will be more interested than usual in spiritual and philosophical matters. You will explore the meaning behind everyday occurrences in your life and will become more aware of your role in the larger plan of the Universe. Now is an excellent time to study spiritual and metaphysical subjects (such as astrology), and you would benefit greatly from doing so at this time. Concepts which you previously considered abstract will be more acceptable to you now and you will be able to put them into operation in your life.

You are unusually idealistic now and will work hard to manifest your ideals in life. Because you are more compassionate toward others (even those you don't know), you want to work to make the world a better place for all. During this transit you may frequently find yourself in the position of arbitrator because you generally have a knack for solving disagreements.

Your increased level of concern for your fellow man may lead you to work with others to help cure the ills of society. You are impatient with suffering and injustice and are willing to give of yourself in order to help those in need. Your personal relationships will be the last area you will practice this compassion, however, because you are interested in helping mankind in general.

This transit brings to light new Universal truths which you had previously overlooked or avoided. You can clearly see the largeness of the Universal plan and the complexities involved, and you are anxious to share this realization with those around you. You are highly intuitive now and may have psychic experiences during this time. This is also a good time to examine past-life memories.

Uranus sextile Moon: 2/18/2007 4:25 AM, Exact

This transit occurs only twice in each 84-year cycle of Uranus. Your emotions are highly stimulated by this transit, and you will allow yourself to look at the world very subjectively. Your inner world is at least as important to you as the outer "reality" that you function in. Now is the time to revel in your innermost feelings.

You are likely to make more emotional demands on your friends and love partners. All new and existing relationships must have an excitement to them that you may not have demanded before. If your current relationships cannot adjust to your increased emotional needs, you will not hesitate to find others that do. You have to be able to exercise total freedom in your emotional self-expression. Anyone who tries to limit you in this area will meet with great resistance.

It is possible that you will make innovative changes in your home environment during this time, and you will require that it be more emotionally satisfying. You want your home to be stimulating and exciting and will not settle for safety and security alone in your domestic life now. Now is also a great time to entertain guests in your home.

As you learn more about your innermost feelings, your creativity will also be stimulated. It is clear to you how you can make your life more interesting and exciting. You are able to see things from a new perspective, and this lends freshness and innovation to your creative works. This time is especially good for business dealings, especially those involving real estate, food or agriculture.

Jupiter oppose Sun: 3/2/2007 9:21 PM, Exact

This transit is usually a positive one, although it does have its dangers. You are likely to grow a great deal during this time, and you may achieve a certain level of success and be rewarded for your past years of preparation. The important thing is to remember when you are in the spotlight that material growth is not the only thing that matters. Many people have achieved "success" only to find they lacked the inner capacity to handle it.

There is the danger of overconfidence at this time, and perhaps even a little arrogance. Avoid a tendency to become rigidly opinionated (even fanatical) in your religious, cultural and educational views. Closely examine your motives to be sure you're not practicing hypocrisy. Be sure to work on an equal basis with others for mutual growth. Working with others now can help you to clearly identify and express your own individuality. You can learn a great deal from others around you at this time.

This transit also brings the tendency to gamble or spend extravagantly. It is fun to indulge yourself and enjoy it, but also remember to keep track of your financial limits. You may feel so overconfident that you assume the resources you have access to now will always be there. However, such is not the case. Spend wisely and don't overindulge in drink or merriment.

Some people have problems with authority figures at this time. Again, you may tend to have a chip on your shoulder now, and those in a position of power over you are very tempted to knock it off. Be careful not to "bite off more than you can chew." Acting belligerent around police officers, for example, is guaranteed to get you into trouble.

Uranus square Sun: 5/14/2007 1:12 AM, Exact

This transit will occur only twice in each 84-year cycle of Uranus. At this time you will be sorely tested and will encounter obstacles that make it difficult to stay on your current path. You may wonder if you've chosen the best path after all. If you have, your current goals and objectives will survive this transit and even be strengthened by it. If it is time for you to reconsider your life's course, events will occur to create the need for radical change.

During this time you will encounter sudden and unexpected events. Quite often these sudden occurrences will result from your feeling trapped or stifled in some way. You may feel as though you must break free from unbearable limitations. These "events" allow you to evaluate your relationships with others objectively and then make needed changes in your work environment, family life, or marriage. You will begin to question the appropriateness of certain people and groups in your life and may sever your connections with many. If you begin a new relationship at this time, it will be very exciting, but probably only temporary. Finances will be erratic; this is not a good time for gambling and speculation.

Avoid a tendency to become headstrong, egotistical and rebellious. You can accomplish a great deal now if you can willingly channel the extra energy of this transit into endeavors designed to bring about needed change in your life. If you instead attempt to suppress the energy which this transit brings, you may suffer an accident or illness, especially related to your heart.

Jupiter trine Jupiter: 6/13/2007 2:37 AM, Exact

If you can face these questions and answer them honestly, you will reap the maximum benefit from this transit.

Saturn square Mercury: 7/26/2007 7:21 PM, Exact

This is a time of intellectual conflict and disagreement with others. Others will challenge your point of view and communication in general will be problematic. You may feel you have to defend yourself and justify your beliefs. This may lead to feelings of depression because no one seems to understand you or be sympathetic to your views. You may even sever relationships with others (or at least think about it) because of such disagreements.

Refrain from making important decisions until this transit has passed because there is a greater danger of miscommunication. Your viewpoint is limited to your own outlook, and you may not be able to see the bigger picture now. You are also more pessimistic than usual and may not be able to recognize true opportunities when they come your way.

If you can be aware of this tension between you and others now, you can avoid conflict and work toward a mutually satisfactory resolution of any problems that arise. Be careful not to allow your thinking to become inflexible. The purpose of this transit is to prompt you to re-examine ideas and beliefs you have held for years to see if they are still valid to you.

Life Trends™ Transits Report for Johnny Depp For 12 Months Starting 1/1/2007

Perhaps it is time to broaden your point of view in certain areas. The challenges you receive from others will help you do this. Do not ignore this call to restructure your thinking. If you do, the upcoming stressful transits of Saturn to your Mercury will be even more difficult times for you. If you can incorporate necessary changes now, you can save yourself some trouble later.

Problems with authority figures, as well as legal battles, are common with this transit. It can also indicate illness involving the lungs and organs of speech, such as laryngitis. Be sure to find time to relax and take care of your health during this time.

Saturn square Venus: 8/2/2007 11:31 AM, Exact

It is difficult for you to relate to others at this time, and you may find yourself feeling lonely. Your present love relationship may grow cold or even end, although a solid relationship will survive the test of this transit. You may end up spending time alone rather than attempting to socialize because it just seems to make life easier and less complicated.

You may suddenly discover that you have not been seeing your partner realistically and have to face the harsh reality of who they really are. Or, you or your partner may just decide that the relationship no longer serves a positive purpose in your life. Another possibility is that outside circumstances could interfere with or break up a relationship. If this does happen, it is most likely that your own subconscious desires for a better relationship are contributing to the breakup, even though this is not obvious on the surface.

Take advantage of this time alone and search out your true needs in relationships. People enter into love affairs for all the "wrong" reasons. Now is a good time to mull over what your true needs are. You have a strong need for freedom now and need to be left alone to be yourself without being judged by others. In this way, you can gain new insight into who you really are.

Any relationship which passes from your life now could not stand the test of this transit and is probably not strong enough to be of value to you in the future. Anyone who cannot support you being yourself is not contributing to your growth now. This is a good time to separate the wheat from the chaff. Your finances are likely to be tighter than usual now, and your usual sources of assistance may not be available. Avoid legal conflicts, as you may not like the outcome.

Saturn conjunct Uranus: 9/15/2007 12:01 AM, Exact

This transit will occur only once in every 28- to 30-year cycle of Saturn and is usually a time of great stress. You are frustrated now and feel that you are stuck in a dull, boring rut. Even though you try to break free from the monotony, your obligations and responsibilities seem to hold you captive. During this transit you are likely to make sudden decisions and take impulsive actions which will surprise even your closest friends. You may leave a relationship or a job without warning or suddenly move to a different location. However you choose to do it, you feel an overwhelming need to rebel against oppressive situations in your life.

The more rigid and inflexible you have been in life, the more difficult this transit will be for you. That is because this transit tends to release the tension which you have been building up until now. The more tension there is, the more violent your reaction to this transit. If you have been flexible and adjust well to change, you may be able to make major positive changes in your life now without upsetting the foundations you have worked so hard to build. If you feel the need to rebel against your current life situation, be sure not to throw the baby out with the bath water. Certainly there are some parts of your life which are satisfactory and which should be preserved, even if they need to be modified.

In the long run it would be best if you cooperate in making needed changes in your life now. If these changes are not made now, you will be faced with similar but even more difficult situations in about 14 years when Saturn opposes your Uranus. Once you have chosen a course to pursue, remember to use caution. Although you feel like working and accomplishing minor miracles now, you are also more tense and high-strung than usual. Be realistic about what you can handle and don't work yourself into a frazzle, for this could result in illness or injuries.

Jupiter trine Ascendant: 9/17/2007 2:28 AM, Exact

You will grow a great deal through your contacts with others at this time. You have a keener sense of what it takes to maintain a healthy give-and-take balance in relationships. You are very supportive of your friends, and you tend to bring out the best in others. ### Saturn conjunct Mars: 9/28/2007 11:01 PM, Exact

This transit will occur only once every 28-30 years. You feel very frustrated now, as though you are fighting a losing battle every day. You put out a great deal of energy and then get nothing but resistance and opposition in return. How bad this resistance will be depends largely on how you handle the energies of this transit. What is really happening is that your energy is being held back or inhibited. The more you can narrow your focus now, the more successful you will be.

It is likely that you will feel irritable now. This is complicated by the fact that you are likely to have more than a few problems in your life now. People seem to interfere with your goals whether they mean to or not. Every situation you encounter seems to contain a built-in defense system against your succeeding. At work you may encounter opposition from your boss or coworkers. Or you may find yourself doing a major share of the overall work.

One frequent manifestation of this transit is an ego dispute with someone on the job. While it may seem to you as though there is a conspiracy against you, this may not really be the case. For some reason others find you threatening, whether you intend to be or not. For this reason they react by trying to stop you in whatever you do. Under this transit it is even possible that you could be the victim of such an attack without any obvious provocation from you.

The best way to handle this transit is to confine your efforts to a few projects instead of trying to take on too much at once. Keep your goals modest now and you are less likely to be disappointed. This is a good time to get a check-up since the energies are quite intense and could result in physical problems, especially with bones, skin and teeth. You could also experience conflicts with superiors or authority figures, such as government agencies.

Jupiter trine Jupiter: 9/28/2007 11:32 PM, Exact

This is a time of increased optimism and self-confidence and is an excellent time to review your goals and make long-range plans for the future. It is a good time to reorganize your life in some way--your office, kitchen, etc. You feel like expanding your knowledge about the world and may even enroll in a class now or travel to distant places. Now is also a good time to join a consciousness-raising group or otherwise indulge in self-discovery.

You generally feel good now, and if you have been sick recently this transit will help a great deal to rebuild your strength. This is also an excellent time to improve your family life and to grow in the process. Your finances are likely to improve, and business investments are favored. Legal matters will be resolved with little effort (often to everyone's mutual benefit).

This is a good time to reflect on your goals and to explore ways to eliminate stress and tension from your life. You may become involved in a group dedicated to bettering the world, and this would be a good outlet for your energy now. Actions undertaken with a group at this time are generally successful.

This transit leaves you with a feeling of "laziness," and so you may find that you do nothing but feel good during its duration. If you can, however, take this opportunity to travel or get involved in mind-expanding experiences, study new subjects, etc. The ability to benefit greatly from such activities exists now; you have to add the motivation.

Saturn trine Midheaven: 9/30/2007 4:25 AM, Exact

At this time you are self-assured enough to accomplish a great deal--both at a deep inner level and in the outside world. You can plan well for the future now in a practical way in order to ensure that you will reach your ultimate goals in life. You prefer to work on your own now and feel driven to prove to yourself (and also to others) that you are capable and competent. But remember, this doesn't mean you can't accept help when you need it.

This is a good time to develop self-discipline and to plan a strategy for achieving your future goals. You may be overly cautious and wary of radically new ideas, especially in your career. But you shouldn't resist the changes that are taking place. Making them now will save you from even more upheaval when Saturn makes its next hard aspect to your Midheaven. Don't become too rigid or conservative in your thinking.

At this time you will go through a weeding out process in terms of your attitudes toward work, responsibility, change, and authority figures (among other things). You will consider whether your present attitudes are really your own independent ones or whether you have inherited a set from your family and friends along the way. It is not easy to let go of these inheritances because they hold such sentimental value. But the question should be whether they are helping or hindering your growth.

It is best to deal with such questions now rather than suppress the feelings that come up during this transit. Be willing to make necessary changes, even if it seems risky at the time. Now is an excellent time to resolve conflicts with the law or other authority figures.

Saturn is in the 2nd: 10/10/2007 1:08 AM, Moving Forwards at Degree 0 in a 27 Degree House

Saturn is in the 2nd house now. Material possessions and finances undergo alterations, and security is hard won. This is not the time to base personal worth on acquisitions.

Jupiter oppose Sun: 10/23/2007 1:04 PM, Exact

This transit is usually a positive one, although it does have its dangers. You are likely to grow a great deal during this time, and you may achieve a certain level of success and be rewarded for your past years of preparation. The important thing is to remember when you are in the spotlight that material growth is not the only thing that matters. Many people have achieved "success" only to find they lacked the inner capacity to handle it.

There is the danger of overconfidence at this time, and perhaps even a little arrogance. Avoid a tendency to become rigidly opinionated (even fanatical) in your religious, cultural and educational views. Closely examine your motives to be sure you're not practicing hypocrisy. Be sure to work on an equal basis with others for mutual growth. Working with others now can help you to clearly identify and express your own individuality. You can learn a great deal from others around you at this time.

This transit also brings the tendency to gamble or spend extravagantly. It is fun to indulge yourself and enjoy it, but also remember to keep track of your financial limits. You may feel so overconfident that you assume the resources you have access to now will always be there. However, such is not the case. Spend wisely and don't overindulge in drink or merriment.

Some people have problems with authority figures at this time. Again, you may tend to have a chip on your shoulder now, and those in a position of power over you are very tempted to knock it off. Be careful not to "bite off more than you can chew." Acting belligerent around police officers, for example, is guaranteed to get you into trouble.

Jupiter sextile Saturn: 11/17/2007 5:09 PM, Exact

This transit is one of the few pleasant blends of the energies of Jupiter and Saturn. You are confident and willing to gamble (Jupiter), yet cautious and prudent (Saturn). At this time, you can carefully balance your need for growth with your need for security. You are practical, yet optimistic. Hopeful, yet realistic.

You can understand that the events occurring in your life are there to teach you lessons. Therefore, you do not become embittered by obligations that you must face. On the other hand, you are not willing to take on everyone else's work. Just be sure to balance your heightened sense of responsibility with a little fun and games for Jupiter's sake.

Financially, this will be a good time. Mostly this is because you are more prudent in your spending, exercising caution in all money matters. This would be a good time to expand your business because your decision to do so will be well-considered. You also have a good eye for potential investments now, but are not easily misled by outrageous promises. Take this opportunity to lay a solid foundation for future business success.

Now is the time to turn your dreams into reality. If they can't stand the test of the real world, maybe it's time to adjust your expectations. Business and career opportunities you encounter now are likely to serve you well in the future, and you will receive the recognition you have earned from your peers and superiors. This is also a fortunate time to handle legal matters.

Jupiter trine Uranus: 12/25/2007 9:36 AM, Exact

This transit is known for being lucky, and always brings something unexpected. You feel like doing something out-of-the-ordinary at this time and want to explore new perspectives on life. You may feel the urge to travel and may have the sudden opportunity to do so during this time.

You may have new opportunities presented to you, seemingly from out of nowhere, such as money from the blue, a move to a better residence, a promotion, business opportunity, or a chance meeting with someone who contributes to your success. You may make exciting new friends or join a scientific, religious, occult, cultural or educational organization which provides the support you need to achieve your goals. Whatever it is, it will require immediate action on your part and it will probably be a wild departure from your norm. You won't have time to sit around and consider the outcome.

Your mind is particularly sharp and inventive at this time. You may come up with innovative ideas that can be put into practice at a later time. Spiritual and metaphysical subjects are of great interest to you now, and you strive to incorporate these principles into your belief system and everyday life. Your intuitive and psychic abilities are heightened; it is a good time to practice astrology. Although this transit is known for its luck in gambling, this will not help you if you are already "unlucky" in nature. Be cautious if you gamble and don't spend more than you have.
